

REPORT

Observation of World Health Day 2024

The Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC), Sao Chang College, in collaboration with District Hospital, Tuensang, observed World Health Day on 7th April 2024 at the District Hospital, Tuensang. A brief programme was held which was chaired by Dr.Santosh Kumar Singh, Coordinator, IQAC, Sao Chang College. Medical Superintendent in-charge, Dr.Tochi addressed the gathering and spoke on the importance of practicing healthy habits to ensure good health, by drinking pure water, eating healthy food and breathing healthy air. He urged the students, faculty and staff nurses attending the program to promote healthy environment around, as human life and environment are connected to each other. Dr.Senilo, psychiatrist, District Hospital, Tuensang, spoke on the significance of World Health Day which is held in order to mark the founding of World Health Organization (WHO) and to draw worldwide attention to a subject of major importance to global health each year. He highlighted the gathering on the theme "Health for All" which was chosen to mark the 75th anniversary of the World Health Organization (WHO). Principal of the College Dr. Lanurenla expressed gratitude to the District Hospital Authority for the cooperation extended towards the college while also granting permission for conduct of the program. As part of the extension activity, the college also donated a moveable plastic commode to the District Disability Rehabilitation Centre located within the Hospital. During the day, cleanliness drive in the hospital campus was also done by the student volunteers of the college. All together 55 participants including Principal, IQAC Coordinator, teaching faculty and medical staff attended the programme.

Authenticated

Principal
Sao Chang College
Tuensang : Nagaland

 GPS Map Camera

Tuensang, Nagaland, India
District Hospital, Tuensang, Nagaland
Lat 26.240262°
Long 94.794193°
06/04/24 10:03 AM GMT +05:30

under the supervision of the DC and DEO of Tuensang, A Zibenthung Kithan.

Niuland revises date for DPDB meeting

Dimapur, April 6 (EMN): The Niuland district planning and development board (DPDB) has decided to hold its monthly meeting on the 15th of every month, with effect from April 15 at 11 am. In the event of the 15th falling on Sunday or holiday, the next working day would be presumed as meeting date, stated an update from the deputy commissioner (DC) and vice chairperson of Niuland DPDB, Sara S Jamir. The DC further informed all the concerned members to take note of the date and attend the meeting accordingly.

Students and faculty after a workshop on career choice at Model Christian College in Kohima

Dimapur, April 6 (EMN): A workshop on office record management was conducted for non-teaching staff of Model Christian College (MCC), Kohima, on Saturday. The resource persons were Vemetha Huzhu, accountant, and Neil-hite Kapfo, system administrator, from Kohima Science College (Autonomous).

Also, according to a press release, students participated in a one-day workshop on career choice comprising three sessions.

Mahendra Educational Private Limited, Kohima, conducted the in which it of advice, tactics, ment strategies to improve t success in the services.

In the ses Abijeet Bharad

Sao Chang College organises community extension service

Dimapur, April 6 (EMN): The internal quality assurance cell (IQAC) and the Students' Union of Sao Chang College jointly organised a community extension service at District Hospital Tuensang on Saturday.

According to a press release, a cleanliness drive was organised at the District Hospital Tuensang campus during the day and student volunteers rendered their service for the welfare of the hospital users.

As part of its extension service to the community, the IQAC also donated a movable plastic commode to the District Disability Rehabilitation Centre in Tuensang, located within the premises of the hospital.

In total, 24 students, five IQAC members, the IQAC coordinator, and the principal extended their service to the community.

dents with valuable insights, strategies, time management and resources to enhance their chance of success in state and civil services.

In the second session, manager, Abijeet Bhargava, Kaziranga University, Jorhat, enlightened the students about diverse career pathways, while the Young Indians, in the third session, fostered an entrepreneurial spirit among students through interactions and seasoned entrepreneurs.

A workshop on "Research Methodology" for the faculty was organised by Research Development Cell, in collaboration with Internal Quality Assessment Cell (IQAC), with associate professor, department of education Nagaland University, Kohima Campus, Dr Boyillapalli Venkata Rao, as the resource person. The workshop was divided into two sessions, namely research methodology and insight on citations.

SCC: A community extension service was jointly organised by the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) and Students Union of Sao Chang College at District Hospital Tuensang, Saturday.

During the day, a cleanliness drive was organised in the district hospital campus with the student volunteers rendering their service in cleaning the hospital campus for the welfare of the hospital users. As part of its extension service to the community, the IQAC also donated a moveable plastic commode to the District Disability Rehabilitation Centre, Tuensang.

IC: Commemorating "World Health Day", students from the NSS and Yuva Tourism Club of Immanuel College, Dimapur conducted a cleanliness drive, Saturday.

To spread the message, students displayed a banner themed, "My Health, My Right", which aimed to emphasize the importance of a clean environment for a healthy life.

NEA & NU: One-day lecture series on "State Budget 2024-2025: A Comprehensive Perspective" was organised by the Nagaland Economic Association (NEA), in collaboration with the department of economics, Nagaland University (NU) on April 5.

The event aimed to delve into the intricacies of the Nagaland State Budget for the fiscal year 2024-2025, providing valuable insights and perspectives for stakeholders and the public.

Speaker for the session, officer in the Indian Economic Service (IES), joint director, department of economic affairs, and officer on special duty department of planning and transformation, government of Nagaland, Nayan-tara Sasikumar, delivered a detailed overview of the State Budget 2024-2025, highlighting key aspects such as total expenditure, total receipts, fiscal deficit, and policy directions.

Sasikumar addressed various issues concerning the budget, including the limited reliance on the state's own tax revenue, dependency on central grants and tax shares, and sectoral allocation disparities.

She proposed measures such as enhancing the state's tax revenue, boosting non-tax revenues, curtailing revenue expenditure, and advocating for projections and fiscal sustainability studies.

Earlier, in an opening remark, professor B. Kilangla Jamir emphasised the critical role of the state budget in fostering responsible financial management, efficient governance, and overall development.

The session concluded with an interactive session where participants engaged in constructive discussions.

BCK: Baptist College Kohima (BCK) held its "Literary Day 2024" under the theme, "Educate, Articulate, Liberate" on April 5 at Ura Academy, Kohima.

The guest speaker of the event, head of history