Report: Cultural cum Literary Day: Folklore Elocution Competition

Date: 24th February, 2024

Venue: Multipurpose Hall, Sao Chang College

The Cultural and Literary Day festivities held on 24th February, 2024, were jointly organized by the Literary and Magazine Committee of Sao Chang College in collaboration with the Cultural Committee. Among the array of activities, the Literary and Magazine Committee orchestrated a Folklore Elocution Competition to uphold the Literary Day. This event was designed to commemorate the venerable tradition of oral storytelling and to foster cultural interchange among the student body.

Participants: A total of 10 participants from various academic disciplines took part in the competition. Each participant showcased their storytelling skills by narrating folklore from different cultures.

Judges: The panel of judges comprised esteemed faculty members:

1. Dr. Iris Odyuo, Department of History
2. Mrs. Chubasangla, Department of Education
3. Mrs. Tiamenla, Department of Economics

Winners: After careful evaluation of each participant's performance, the judges announced the following winners:

First Place: Mr. Liang S K Khamniungan, BA 2nd Sem History Major

Second Place: Miss Tsungdilila, BA 6th Sem English Honours

Third Place: Miss Tekhingla, BA 6th Semester English Honours

Competition Dynamics: The participants displayed remarkable fluency and passion in their storytelling, making the task of determining the winners challenging for the judges. Each storyteller brought a unique perspective and style to their narration, captivating the audience with their rendition of folklore.
