REPORT OF THE SEMINAR ON "CYBER CRIME AWARENESS TALK"

Sao Chang College Students Grievances & Anti- Ragging Committee organized a One day seminar on "CYBER CRIME AWARENESS TALK" on 19th October 2022, which was sponsored by Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC), SCC. The programme was conducted at the college conference hall which was attended by the teaching faculty and students of the college. Resource person of the awareness talk was Mr. Putiyanger, ASI, Office-In-Charge, Cyber Crime Branch, DEF, Tuensang. In the opening remark, the resource person expressed concern on the dramatic rise of Cyber Crimes committed on people, property, governments and as such awareness on such activities becomes crucial. The resource person further explained to the participants about how a range of offenders are using computers, laptops and mobile phones for committing Cyber offences like Cyber bullying, Cyber stalking, sending phishing and threatening emails, to transmit content of child pornography, mobile application based frauds, banking frauds, identity theft etc.

During the formal programme, Ms. A Chubasangla Chang, Assistant Professor & Coordinator, Students Grievances & Anti-Ragging Committee, SCC chaired the programme. Welcome address was proposed by Ms. Shilumongla T. Sangtam, Assistant Professor, Department of Economics, SCC. The one day Awareness Talk was concluded with a vote of thanks by Dr. Santosh Kr. Singh, Associate Professor & Coordinator, IQAC, Sao Chang College.
