Report on: National Space Day

Organized by Department of Land Resources , Tuensang, Nagaland in collaboration with Sao Chang College.

The National Space Day celebration, conducted on 23rd August 2024, was an inspiring event co-organized by the Department of Land Resources, Tuensang, under PMKSY WDC 2.0, and Sao Chang College, Tuensang. The event brought together experts, educators, and students to commemorate India's achievements in space exploration and highlight its relevance to societal progress.

The program was graced by the presence of the Guest of Honour, Dr. Laurenla, Principal of Sao Chang College. The chairperson for the event was Dr. Soyimla Akum, Assistant Professor in the Department of English at Sao Chang College.

The keynote address was delivered by Amos Khiam, AI from the Department of Land Resources, Tuensang, Nagaland. He highlighted the "Importance of the Chandrayaan-3 Mission" and its contributions to space science, technology, and India's global stature. His insights resonated deeply with the audience, particularly in emphasizing how India's lunar exploration projects foster innovation and national pride.

The program included a creative art activity related to "National Space Day" where the interested students were given an opportunity to participate and the winners were presented with exciting gifts and cash prize. In the competition, the first prize was begged by Shouthong of BA 3rd Semester(History Honours), 2nd prize by Pushu Khiamniungan of BA 3rd Semester(English Honours), and third prize by Chemie M of BA 5th Semsester(English Honours).

The event concluded with a heartfelt vote of thanks delivered by Takumpuba Lomou, Assistant Professor in the Department of English at Sao Chang College. He acknowledged the collaborative efforts of all organizers and participants, emphasizing the value of education in promoting awareness about India's space advancements.

The National Space Day celebration was an overwhelming success, achieving its objective of raising awareness about India's growing capabilities in space science and technology. The focus on Chandrayaan-3 and its significance not only inspired students but also underlined the practical benefits of space exploration for national development.
