Sao Chang College, a place of dear,
Where knowledge breeds and dreams appear,
With hearts ablaze and spirits strong,
We forge ahead, where we belong.
With each lesson learned, our spirits soar high,
Sao Chang College, where greatness will never die.

Even if my feelings developed
Further from here where the station
Could have complicated, they're a matter
Can't decipher, the line is long as I

Candle Light

How I wish one could be like a burning candle light
So bright with a smile on his face
Where there is no place to hide

Where one could walk on the right path of life carrying the light given to him Where I doubt One would stop and realize their whereabouts

But sadly people find themselves
Being trapped in worldly pleasures
But one ought to check oneself
And live a fruitful life

JIBULOU Y BHAMNUNGAN

Perfect Light is a hard thing to bring

Perfect Light is a hard thing to bring
When one and have a chance to find
Through laughter and tears, we stand side by side
Sustaining whatever we have to do

One is a hard thing, one hard to bring
A journey, where we all belong
As the journey unfolds, we all find Compassion, peace, and love to bring

Light could be a hard thing to bring
In this journey, we all find
When light is a hard thing to bring
A journey, where we all belong
