

REPORT

Hindi Diwas commemorated by English Department

English Department, Sao Chang College, observed Hindi Diwas by conducting a brief program at the college conference Hall on 14th September 2023. Participants during the program were B.A.1st Semester of English major students along with the teaching faculty of English Department and other teachers. The Program was chaired by Dr.Soyimla, Assistant Professor, dept. of English. Dr.Santosh Kumar Singh, Associate Professor, dept. of English, gave a brief talk on the significance of Hindi Diwas. The speaker highlighted the gathering that the Constituent Assembly of India accepted Hindi as the official language of India on September 14, 1949. The first Hindi Day was officially celebrated on September 14, 1953. Dr. Santosh also enumerated the participants that Hindi was initially adopted as the official language in order to simplify administration in a nation with multiple language and also to celebrate of the Hindi language's profound influence on Indian culture and identity. The speaker also added that as one of the official languages of India, Hindi holds a special place in the hearts of millions, acting as a unifying force in a linguistically diverse nation. The Program concluded with a vote of thanks by Mr. Akyuba Sangtam, Head of English department, Sao Chang College.

Authenticated

Principal
Sao Chang College
Tuensang : Nagaland