REPORT ON INTERDEPARTMENTAL SEMINAR

Organized by: RESEARCH COMMITTEE, Sao Chang College

The Research Committee conducted its 5th Interdepartmental Seminar on 6th November 2023. Held in College Conference Hall, the seminar was chaired by Dr.Soyimla Akum, Assistant Professor in English.

Title of the program: Listen Learn and Grow Together Date: 6th November 2023.

Objective:

To present, learn and discuss on varied specialization, recent trends and developments, research papers, promote research oriented academic interest among the faculties.

Description:

In the first session Ms.Tongpangkokla Chang presented on the topic, Costus : An Ethnobotanical Significance with reference to Noksen Area. She discussed on how every household in the community maintain the Costus species and ensure conservation through traditional practice. Various benefits of Costus were also highlighted.

In the second session, Mr. Aghato Sumi presented on the Insight and Analysis of Russo-Ukraine War. He dwelled on several aspects including military and political dynamics, humanitarian crisis, international response and geopolitical implications.

The presentations were followed by interactive sessions.

Outcome:

Through the 5th Interdepartmental seminar, the participating faculties could learn about the Ethnobotanical significance of Costus. Their study in Noksen area reveals a rich tapestry of traditional knowledge associated with Costus speciosus including its uses in traditional medicine. The participants also learnt about the background of the ongoing Russo-Ukraine war. That the conflict is complex in its origin and the ramifications it may bring in future. Resolving the conflict and achieving a lasting peace will require combination of diplomatic efforts, international pressure and regional cooperation.
