

SAO CHANG COLLEGE
SOCIOLOGY DEPARTMENT

Department meeting

Date: 6/01/2024

Venue: Staff Room

Meeting minutes

1. The meeting was chaired by the Ms. Imnatula Kechular
2. It was decided that as part of action plan of the Department, the department will visit the Kohdi Home on 12 February 2024.
3. It was further decided that the Department will take the 6th semester students for the activity.

Meeting Attendance:

1. Ms Y Toninaro Chongpho
2. Ms Dekhingpila Sangtam
3. Ms Hotoni Yeptho
4. Ms Imnatula Kechular

Action Taken

The Sociology department conducted a visit to Kohdi Children Home as part of its extension service initiative. Faculty members from the sociology department, along with students from the 6th semester, participated in the visit. Ms. Chemshe from the 6th semester presided over the program, while Ms. Hotoni Yethomi, Assistant Professor, delivered a talk. The 6th semester students showcased their talents through a group song, and Ms. Asonla from the same semester performed a solo act. Various games were organized for the children, and they were presented with gifts such as books, crayons, pencils, and other stationery items.

Department meeting

28/3/2024

Venue: Staff Room

Meeting minutes

1. The HOD, Ms Y Toninaro Chongpho convened the meeting
2. The house decided that the Department will provide Career guidance to class 10 and 12 students as part of the extension service.
3. The date for the activity was scheduled for 4/04/2024

Meeting Attendance:

1. Ms Y Toninaro Chongpho
2. Ms Dekhingpila Sangtam
3. Ms Hotoni Yeptho
4. Ms Imnatula Kechular

Action Taken

On April 4, 2024, the Sociology Department of Sao Chang College, in collaboration with the Youth Department of Tuensang Village Baptist Church, organized a one-day career guidance program for 10th and 12th standard students at Ngangpong Village. Ms. Y Toninaro Chongpho conducted two sessions during the event. In the first session, she underscored the multitude of fields and opportunities that remain untapped by today's youth. She encouraged students to think innovatively and not limit themselves to mainstream paths but explore uncharted territories. To illustrate her point, she provided examples from various fields, from the Nagaland Public Service Commission. In the second session, she focused on goal setting. The vote of thanks was delivered by the Youth Pastor TSBL, concluding the session.

Department meeting

Date: 1/4/2024

Venue: Staff Room

1. The HOD chaired the meeting.
2. The Department decided to have a debate for its honors students.
3. The Department decided to have the debate on the topic, "FNT: A Boon or a Bane" as it is an ongoing issue in Nagaland.
4. The tentative date for the debate to be on 10/4/2024

Meeting Attendance:

1. Ms Y Toninaro Chongpho
2. Ms Dekhingpila Sangtam
3. Ms Hotoni Yeptho
4. Ms Imnatula Kechular

Action Taken

On April 10, 2024, the Sociology Department of Sao Chang College organized a debate titled "FNT: A Boon or a Bane." The event saw participation from eight students across the 2nd, 3rd, and 6th semesters of sociology, with an even split of four supporting and four opposing the motion. Ms. Tsalila Sangtam, representing the 4rd semester, clinched the title of the best debater for the motion, while Mr. Tanghiu S from the 6th semester earned the accolade for the opposition. Dr. Iris Odyuo and Ms. Alitoli V Sumi from the history department presided as judges for the debate. Mr. Longtichang Tzudir, the Vice President of Sao Chang College, expressed gratitude in his vote of thanks, underscoring the significance of staying abreast of contemporary issues beyond conventional academic materials and urging students to expand their horizons.

Joint Meeting Sociology and EVS Department

Date: 19/04/2024

Venue: Staff Room

Meeting Minutes

1. Ms. Hotoni Yethomi, Assistant Professor, Sociology Department chaired the meeting.
2. As part of the Action plan, the EVS and Sociology deliberated on the joint activity.
3. It was concluded that the two departments will give a seminar to teachers.
4. Baptist School, Tuensang Village was chosen for the activity.
5. It was decided that the tentative activity date will be 1/5/1024

Meeting Attendance:

1. Ms. Rangbenkumla Chang (EVS Department)
2. Ms Y Toninaro Chongpho (Sociology Department)
3. Ms Dekhingpila Sangtam (Sociology Department)
4. Ms Hotoni Yeptho (Sociology Department)
5. Ms Imnatula Kechular (Sociology Department)

Action Taken

On May 1st, 2024, the Sociology and Environmental Science departments of Sao Chang College collaborated to organize a teacher-cantered Seminar at Baptist School in Tuensang Village. The event saw the participation of 14 teachers. Ms. Y Toninaro Chongpho, Assistant Professor and Head of the Sociology Department at Sao Chang College, led the first session, discussing the theme "Teachers as Role Models." The second session, focusing on "Nurturing Emotional Intelligence to Address Teacher Burnout," was conducted by Ms. Rangbenkumla Chang, Assistant Professor and Head of the Environmental Science Department at Sao Chang College.