SEMINAR ON THE SCOPE OF ENTREPRENEURSHIP IN FLORICULTURE

Sao Chang College, under Rashtriya Uchchatar Shiksha Abhiyan organized a seminar on the 'Scope of Entrepreneurship in Floriculture' on the 2nd of May, 2023 in the Conference Hall, at the 11 AM. The seminar was organized as part of the extension service for the community in particular housewives and unemployed youth. The objective of organizing the seminar was to create awareness on the new business opportunities in floriculture.

On the 18th of April 2023, invitation letter of resource person along with a forwarding letter from the Office of the Principal was send to Ms. R. Akila Rothrong, Sub- Divisional Agriculture Officer, Longkhim, Tuensang and Ms. Arenla Sangtam, a Tuensang based entrepreneur in flower growing business. Thereafter, invitation letter for participation along with the registration form and flyer of the Seminar were hand delivered to the church of the four major tribes under 3rd NAP, Saksi Sector. After receiving the acceptance letter from the resource and the registration of interested participants from the four churches, the arrangements for the seminar were made.

The seminar as plan started at 11 am in the College Conference Hall. Ms. R. Akila Rothrong in her speech, conveyed her appreciation to the college for organizing such event. She highlighted the various ways and means of starting business in floriculture. She added that one should be willing to work hard and be determined in order to be a successful entrepreneur.

Ms. Arenla Sangtam, a successful flower grower based in Tuiensang, had been involved in flower growing business since 1998. She narrated about the struggles that she had to endure during the initial days of the business. After her initial struggle, she is now an established entrepreneur in the flower business all due to the fact that she was persistent and dedicated in her profession.

The programme was chaired by Mr. Bumat Wongto BA 6th Semester and Floriculture student. Introduction of the Resource person was given by Ms. Mongshai Shiu of BA 6th Semester and Floriculture student. Vote of Thanks was proposed by Mr. Akyuba Sangtam, Assistant professor and Convenor of the Seminar. The Floriculture Students were assigned for hospitality.

All together, 96 participants from 3rd NAP Saksi Sector, Floriculture students and Official attended the seminar.

All official corresponds and relevant documents enclosed.

SCC organize seminar on scope of entrepreneurship in floriculture

DIMAPUR, MAY 3 (MExN): Sao Chang College, Tuensang under the Rashtriya Uchchatar Shiksha Abhiyan (RUSA) scheme on May 2 organized a seminar on 'Scope of Entrepreneurship in Floriculture' at the College Conference Hall.

A press release received from media cell, Sao Chang College informed that 20 participants each from the four major tribes under 3rd NAP

Saksi Sector, Tuensang were invited as participants. The resource persons for the seminar were R. Akila Rothrong, Sub-Divisional Agriculture Officer, Longkhim and Arenla Sangtam, a local flower grower and successful entrepreneur.

R. Akila Rothrong in her speech conveyed her appreciation to the college for organizing such an event. She highlighted the various means and ways of starting business in floriculture. She also added that one should be willing to work hard and be determined in order to be a successful entrepreneur.

Arenla Sangtam, a successful flower grower, had been involved in flower growing business since 1998. She narrated about the struggles that she had to undergo during her initial days. After her initial struggle, she is now an established entrepreneur in flower business all due to the fact that she was persistent and dedicated in her profession.

The programme was chaired by Bumat Wongto of B.A 6th Semester. Introduction of the resource persons was done by Mongshai Shiu of B.A 6th Semester. Vote of thanks was proposed by Akyuba Sangtam, Assistant Professor and Convenor of the Seminar.
