College Anthem

In the land of the first son of Nagaland
In the land of rich hue and colours
Emanating the light of knowledge.
This is Sao Chang College
The first child of Tuensang
We will honour it and stand just for your cause.
Pressing on towards the goal
Higher, higher we will climb
We will dwell under your banner of
"Deeds not words"
May God bless our Sao Chang College.

Editorial Page

Welcome to this year's edition of our annual college magazine, themed "Campus Kaleidoscope"! Just as a kaleidoscope offers a myriad of colours and patterns, our campus is a vibrant collage composed with the diverse talents, passions, and endeavours of our students.

Within these pages, one will find a captivating glimpse into the kaleidoscopic world of our campus community. Each contribution reflects the unique perspectives, experiences, and voices of our students, showcasing the rich patchwork of life at our college.

Every piece in this magazine offers a window into the realms that define our campus culture. Whether it is a reflection of art, cultural celebrations, community service initiatives, or sporting triumphs, every aspect of campus life finds expression within these pages.

As you flip through the pages of this magazine, we invite you to immerse yourself in the kaleidoscope of experiences that make our campus truly special. Take a moment to appreciate the creativity, dedication, and passion that our students bring to every aspect of college life.

We extend our heartfelt gratitude to all the students who have contributed to this magazine in different forms of sketches, poems, and articles. May this magazine serve as a cherished keepsake, capturing the essence of our campus community and inspiring future generations to continue adding new hues to our ever-evolving campus kaleidoscope.

Happy Reading!

Message

Sao Chang College features among the pioneering Higher Educational Institutions of Nagaland. Many alumni have carved out a niche for themselves in the rungs of society and today the family of Sao Chang basks under the warmth and support of these people as well as the utmost cooperation of all the stakeholders. This year too, I take immense pleasure in the fact that the Literary and Magazine Committee has competently come up with the CAMPUS KALEIDOSCOPE to showcase the skills and multifaceted talents of the students, the dedication of the faculty and the commitment of the support staff. I believe that this magazine will be one among many that will document the pulsating life of Sao Chang College for the succeeding generations.

I convey my heartiest congratulations to the team for tirelessly working to bring out this magazine.

God bless Sao Chang College.

DEPUTY COMMISSIONER Tuensang : Nagaland

Message

It gives me great pleasure to write this message for the Annual Magazine publication of Sao Chang College, Tuensang. The magazine will be a mirror, reflecting the mind of the students and will showcase the vibrant hues of college life.

This annual magazine is a platform where every cadre gets opportunity to showcase his or her skills and talents in various art forms. It is also the achievements and valued activities that remain as a signature of the institution in the minds of the viewers and readers.

I extend my heartfelt good wishes and appreciation to the editorial team of the Sao Chang College, Tuensang for the successful publication of the magazine in an aesthetic manner. I wish the college to continue the journey of excellence.

With all best wishes.

Message

*At the outset I would like to extend my heartfelt congratulations to all of you!
Thank You for choosing Sao Chang College.*

It is a pleasure that the Sao Chang College is bringing out the college magazine for the year 2023 - 2024 on the theme ' Campus Kaleidoscope'.

Just as the shifting colors and shapes in a kaleidoscope creates mesmerising patterns, so too do the myriad voice and background within our midst come together to form a mosaic of unity and strength.

As Student leaders, it is our privilege and responsibility to embrace that diversity and to cultivate an environment where every individual feels valued, included, and empowered to contribute their unique gifts to the collective tapestry of our campus.

In the ever-changing landscape of higher education, let us be the architects of positive change, building bridges of empathy and solidarity across boundaries of race, gender, religion, and nationality. Let us challenge ourselves to see the world through new perspectives, to engage in difficult conversations with open hearts and minds, and to stand in solidarity with those voice have been Marginalised or silenced.

On this occasion I extend my deepest appreciation to all the members of the College for their commendable service and contribution made.

My best wishes in every endeavours. And wish the publication of the Magazine and the celebration a grand success.

Message

It gives me immense pleasure as an alumnus of Sao Chang College. I am indeed gratified to know that the college is releasing its annual magazine for a year 2024. I would also like to extend my humble gratitude for granting me this opportunity to express my valuable thoughts to our dear loving students.

It is my firm believed that this kind of extracurricular activities will bring the students from various discipline on a common platform to share and display their ideas and creative talents. I wish the students community of Sao Chang College a great success in their career ahead.

“And yes we have turned over to a new leave greener and richer this time” and towards this end we must encourage all the sections of the society to actively involve themselves in the field of Education.

On WISDOM and HUMANITY of the NAGAS

The Naga people's culture is deeply rooted in strong moral principles. To live a long and harmonious life, it is essential to follow certain customs and beliefs. For example, one should avoid stealing, committing adultery, lying, and bearing false witness. Charles Chasie (2005) explains that certain Angami words, such as kenyü (taboo), mhosho (integrity, honor), menga (shame), terhomia (supernatural), and peyü (wisdom), represent values that shape the psyche of all Nagas.

Robert Fulghum's (2003) famous essay "All I Need to Know I Learned in Kindergarten" reminds me of the Naga people's cultural values. In the essay, Fulghum suggests that the world would be a better place if adults followed the simple rules they learned in kindergarten as children:

Share everything.

Play fair.

Don't hit people.

Put things back where you found them. Clean up your own mess.

Don't take things that aren't yours.

Say you're sorry when you hurt somebody.

Wash your hands before you eat.

Flush.

Warm cookies and cold milk are good for you.

Live a balanced life—learn some and think some and draw and paint and sing and dance and play and work every day some.

Take a nap every afternoon.

When you go out into the world, watch out for traffic, hold hands, and stick together.

(Robert Fulghum 2003)

The Nagas have inherited valuable wisdom from generation to generation. This wisdom includes a strong sense of respect for the community as a whole, as well as for specific groups such as the aged, disabled, orphaned, and widowed. It extends even to one's friends and foes and encompasses both the rich and the poor. The Nagas' cultural values of mutual respect, hospitality, politeness, integrity, fair dealings, thankfulness and the sacredness of life, time, nature, ecology, politics and equality are crucial for their survival and have universal applicability.

GARDENING, FOOD PROCESSING, AND WORK AND EARN PROGRAMME INITIATIVES AT SCC SOCHUM

In a bid to promote sustainability, entrepreneurship, and practical skill development, the students and faculty members of SCC Sochum have spearheaded several initiatives over the past month.

GARDENING INITIATIVE:

Commencing on March 15, 2024, the gardening project aimed to cultivate organic fruits and vegetables to enhance the availability of healthy food options within the community. Over a span of two weeks, students actively participated, contributing a variety of seeds including beans, mustard, cucumber, melons, pumpkin, radishes, garlic, squash, and other greens. The initiative not only seeks to produce fresh produce but also fosters a culture of environmental stewardship by promoting greenery in the area.

FOOD PROCESSING PROGRAMME:

Concurrently, a Food Processing Programme was organized at the Nagaland Tool Room and Training Center from March 22 to March 27, 2024. Both male and female students engaged in baking classes instructed by professional baker Miss Cham Khamniungan. The comprehensive curriculum covered cake baking, cookie, custard, jam making, wine, pickle, and candy making. Each session commenced with theoretical insights into ingredient functions, baking principles, and safety precautions, followed by practical demonstrations allowing students to observe and learn baking techniques firsthand.

WORK AND EARN PROGRAMME:

On March 15, 2024, the Hostel Management Committee launched the Work and Earn Programme, offering students opportunities to gain practical work experience and generate income to support their academic pursuits. Twenty-four students were divided into two groups. One group focused on crocheting, enabling individuals to craft various items from accessories to home decor. The other group was tasked with producing edible items such as cookies, cakes, bread, candies, jams, and pickles. Dr. Lanurenla, the Principal of SCC and the Chairman of Hostel Management Committee pledged to establish a stall to exhibit and sell the products crafted by the students. The Work and Earn Programme not only empowers students economically but also equips them with valuable life skills and entrepreneurial acumen.

These initiatives underscore SCC Sochum's commitment to holistic education, boost self-reliance, and contributing to the sustainable development of the community. Along with the mentioned activities, the Sochum conducts other activities to enhance the over all development of the Sochumers.

Exploring Community-Led Biodiversity Conservation and Livelihood Enhancement: A Field Study

Venturing into the heart of Aüching Village, Longleng, the Department of Environmental Science at Sao Chang College embarked on a transformative journey in collaboration with LEMSACHENLOK Nagaland. Their mission: to delve into the realms of community participation in biodiversity conservation and livelihood enhancement.

Led by the dedicated members of LEMSACHENLOK and the visionary leaders from Aüching Village, the expedition was joined by the esteemed faculty members, Dr. Limamanen Phom, Dr. Soyimla Akum, Miss Vidila Jing and Miss Rangbenkumla Chang along with 178 enthusiastic students.

Guiding the eager minds, Dr. Y Nuklu Phom, the Team Leader of LEMSACHENLOK, underscored the paramount importance of sustainability in every endeavor. He illuminated the models utilized in their intervention, showcasing the essence of community involvement in nurturing biodiversity conservation and livelihood augmentation.

In his discourse, Dr. Phom shed light on the IMS Model: Identifying resources, Managing them effectively, and Sustaining them—a trifecta serving as the bedrock for sustainable development initiatives.

Heartfelt appreciation is extended to the leaders of Aüching village and the LEMSACHENLOK Team for their invaluable insights and contributions. The success of this enriching field study was made possible by the generous support of the 3rd NAP, IR 9th Coy, ITI, DEF, who provided the buses facilitating seamless transportation.

With gratitude and enthusiasm,

LITERARY

On February 24th, 2024, Sao Chang College marked its 48th Cultural cum Literary Day with the theme "Harmony in Diversity" at the college campus. The event was graced by Dr. Lanurenla, the Principal of Sao Chang College as the guest speaker. The Cultural cum Literary Day serves as a beautiful reminder of the diverse collage of cultures that enrich our society. It is a special occasion where people gather to appreciate and celebrate the unique customs, beliefs, and heritage of each culture, promoting the idea of "Harmony in Diversity." The day was filled with various cultural presentations and literary activities. Attendees were treated to captivating cultural dances performed by groups representing different ethnicities including the Chang, Khamniungan, Yimkhiung, and Sangtam communities. Additionally, there was a vibrant Nepali dance that added to the cultural diversity showcased during the event.

Musical performances included a folk fusion song by talented students from the 6th semester, showcasing the fusion of traditional and contemporary music styles. A soulful folk song by Tikhir artists added a touch of authenticity to the celebration.

Moreover, to promote literary talent, a Folk Lore Elocution competition was organized by the Literary and Magazine Committee, providing a platform for students to exhibit their oratory skills while sharing traditional folk tales.

Overall, the event was a wonderful celebration of cultural diversity, bringing together people from all walks of life to celebrate the rich mosaic of humanity.

SPORTS SECRETARY REPORT

The sports committee, along with the Sao Chang College Students' Union with the active support of the Principal and the staffs hosted the 48th Annual Games and Sports Meet under the theme "Embracing Sports Beyond New Horizon" at Parade Ground, Tuensang from 26th -28th February 2024. It was organized to explore the abilities, talents of the students and with an aim to provide opportunities to enshrine the spirits of sportsmanship. The students were divided into four teams namely Team Astros, Team Immortals, Team Royals, and Team Black Mambas.

Day one commenced with the inaugural ceremony in which the Special Guest Er. Moamongba Longchari DPO Department of Land Resources, Tuensang delivered a speech. He emphasized on the importance of sports as a co-curricular activity and the value of team spirit. It was then followed by Oath Taking ceremony and the declaration of the sports week by the Special Guest.

After the inaugural ceremony, knockout matches for football and volleyball were played along with high jump and long jump.

On the second day, events like Badminton, Relay Race, 200, 400, 800 meter race and the third place for football and volleyball were played.

On the final day, final matches for football and volleyball were played including shot-put.

Food stalls were set up by the students of different departments. The NCC Cadets assisted in managing the activities in the ground. The sports meet concluded with the closing ceremony declaring team Immortals as the overall champion. The ceremony ended with mass prayer of thanksgiving.

WHAT IS EU AND IT'S HISTORICAL BACKGROUND

A Friday evening in 1949, some college students met and prayed at 190, Poonamallee High Road, Chennai (then Madras), the home of Professor Hannington Enoch. Week after week they met. Little did the group or Prof. Enoch imagine that this group would grow into a national student movement.

That little prayer cell became the powerhouse of ministry among the students. On 18th September, 1945, after a full discussion, it was decided to adopt the name Union of Evangelical Students of India (UESI). The main reason was to distinguish this ministry from other student movements in India and to underline the indigenous nature of the movement.

UESI was born out of God-given vision and continuous prayers. What began as one tiny seed has now myriad shoots like the banyan tree. After which the Evangelical Union (EU) branched out under the banner of UESI in order to function the ministry at the grassroots level. In the accepted institutions all over India it aims to nurture the students by the transformed student members so that they may serve the nation as the disciple of Lord Jesus Christ.

UESI was affiliated to International Fellowship of Evangelical Students (IFES). In India under the UESI there are three groups divided according to the degree level of the students. EU, ICEU, and EGF. Student can join EU after only they clear matriculation, they remain as an EU member until they graduate. Right after the graduation the EU students will automatically become a member of EGF which is Evangelical Graduate Fellowship. ICEU means Inter-collegiate Evangelical Union. To serve as ICEU, a member has to be inducted from the recent graduated students.

History of EU SCC

In SAO CHANG COLLEGE, EU was established on April 27, 2003 and was affiliated to UESI in the year 2014 on March 25. The EU Ministry in SCC is growing rapidly in terms of its members in number as well as spiritually. The EU acts as a guide to help students who are lost and confused when it comes to faith. The weekly fellowships and camps provide a space for the members to express their opinions, share experiences and their interactions inspire each other. Extending community services exposes the students on the importances of team work, values of life, leadership qualities and personality development. It also bridges the gap between the teachers and students in terms of communication. Which could even more change the life of a student into a better person.

LIFE AFTER JOINING IN EU

My EU experience

Being in EU Ministry, it really brings us more closer and deeper to the LORD , Jesus Christ .

I bring warm greetings in the name of our LORD and saviour Jesus Christ . I am truly honoured to share the EU experiences that I had. To me, this Ministry is like a platform where it provides especially the students more chances and the opportunity to mould ourselves, discover oneself and bring ourself closer to God, our Savior. In EU Ministry I have experienced and witnessed people with great personality and a willingness to serve God. I also believe that EU Ministry is essential and should be promoted to spread the Good news of Christ. I will be forever grateful to this Ministry as it has molded me spiritually and to further remain in faith.

Long live Evangelical Union SCC.

KHULOI
Vice President

Life Testimony

Firstly , I bring warm greetings in the name of our LORD and Saviour Jesus Christ.

I am honoured and privileged to be sharing my Life Testimony here . I ,Yongkai Phom during my highschool days, despite my church upbringing, I fell in with the wrong crowd, though I avoided alcohol and tobacco. Our group fostered trouble, but miraculously I passed my board exams while my friends failed. Entering class 11, I felt lonely and lost. A friend invited me to join the Evangelical Union (EU),where I found purpose in mission work. As I embraced responsibility as a prayer secretary,I reflected on my actions for the sake of my role and the EU community. Through EU's guidance, I learned self-discipline, transforming not only my behaviour but also my appearance. I share this journey to inspire others through Christ's transformative ministry. Amen.

What is national cadet corps?

The National Cadets Corps (NCC) was founded on April 16, 1948, in India with the motto "Unity and Discipline". In Sao Chang College it was established on 11th March, 1977. NCC as the largest youth organization in India which aims to instill discipline leadership and a spirit of service among youths and provides training to young men and women in various aspect such as drill, shooting, map reading first aids. The NCC provides opportunities to the youths of the country for all round development with a sense of duty, commitment, dedication, discipline and moral values so that they become leaders and useful citizen. There are lots of benefits in joining NCC as you have reservation in government jobs especially in the state and central police and paramilitary forces. Where C Certificate offers you 10-15 bonus mark in the paramilitary, forces recruitment i.e BSF, CRPF, SSB etc.

The journey of an NCC cadet is filled with excitement, challenges, and opportunities for personal growth. The journey begins in the school and college where they can be enrolled in the NCC program. Cadets are exposed to structured and disciplined environment that teaches them essential life skills such as leadership, teamwork, time management and communication. As they progress through rank, cadet undergo various activities such as drill, camps, adventure, sports and community service projects.

The NCC offers various opportunities for cadets to showcase their skills and activities such as participating in national level drills and various competition. Cadets who excel in their training and activities may get opportunities to attend international events and youth exchange program.

In conclusion NCC is an important organization in India that helps young people develop a responsible and patriotic citizen. The impact of NCC is felt not only by the cadets themselves but also by their families, communities and country as a whole.

A ROAD FROM CADET TO SENIOR UNDER OFFICER

NCC, SCC

To be a cadet is being unique hardworking, dedicated punctual and most of all an achiever. We cadets live life of an officer without being a part of the premier Indian Military Training institution. The badges in my shoulder signifies my hardwork as a cadet and I didn't collected all my colours in just one day. I didn't change but I evolved through my NCC. I remember my first time in NCC, all blank I stood. And now NCC means so much to me that it has become a part of me. To me this 2 and half years is a road from just being cadet to senior under officer and as I have level up my rank, I feel that my responsibilities have just begun, I have miles to cover before I sleep. Bon Voyage to the cadet.

Morning running, Cool warm up, Parade with ragda.
Loud command, Heavy rifle.
Dashing uniform, Irritating instructors, Late night sleep
Boring midnight sentry, Fight for ranks, Die hard seniors, Tears for camp selection, Amazing camp fire dance, Awesome Experience.

Experience

My journey in the National Cadet Corps (NCC) has been a fulfilling and rewarding one. I started as a cadet in High Secondary School unit 4 Assam BN NCC. I have many experiences in my life as an NCC cadet during my 5 years journey and I enrolled myself in 25 Nagaland BN NCC Unit Sao Chang College. The organization can also be a great way to meet new people and make friends.

Being a part of NCC not only taught me the importance of life Skills like discipline, leadership and teamwork but also instilled a sense of patriotism and service toward nation. As a cadet, I participated in various NCC activities such as drill competition camp, social service blood donation events which helped me develop my Confidence and self – discipline. I have been a part of many camps Annual Training camp, combined annual Training camp and tracking national integration camp representing our college in different district and outside the state. Overall, my journey from a cadet to senior under officer in the NCC has been incredibly rewarding and has shaped me into the person I am today. I am grateful for the opportunities and experiences provided to me and I will always cherish the memories and the lessons i learned during my time in the organisation. I want to extend my heartfelt gratitude to our ANO Capt. Aghato Sumi for shaping my character. Your dedication , hard work and commitment to excellence have been instrumental in guiding us toward our goals and achieving success.

∞ greatest weakness lies in giving up. The more certain way to succeed is always to try just one more times

Embracing the modern college experience

I am truly grateful for the faculty, staff and fellow students for invaluable opportunities to pursue higher education and making my college journey memorable. The journey ahead is filled with opportunities for growth, learning and collaborations.

Today we are living in a modern world, where our college life is a dynamic blend of digital connectivity, diverse perspectives, and evolving educational landscapes. With technology as our ally, embrace collaborative learning, explore innovative ideas, and navigate the globalized community within our campus. This era of education is marked by adaptability and wealth of resources; seize the opportunities it prevents for a well-rounded and forward-looking college experience. I look forward to creating lasting memories, overcoming challenges, and contributing to the vibrant spirit of our college. Wishing everyone a fantastic academic year ahead.

All About Money

Everyman adore the smell of bucks, stinky like fishmonger

Boss with no mercy. It tastes like tangy like blood.

Make me wonder!

Why the whole world is overwhelmed with its charm!

A man with no bucks, find no place to stand.

Nothing less than a moody frown "street cred"

A man with bucks the world in his fingertips.

Good bitter gangrene generated.

Money is used as a weapons for underworld people to defined.

A lady lay with a dog!!

Shows no ill and prefer to be known in the environ as hog!!

Their blood flowing in veins. Before money we are blind.

We lose the sanity of our life in a few moments favour.

Trade by barter thriving, wealth making an aged pie.

Man wealth is defined by bucks.

The power bestowed by money.

Achilles hill many confounded.

Seems bigger than imagined.

Nothing comes free here..everything is tagged excepting life..

Money, Money, Money....Earning money no matter at any cost.

I WISH REAL USE OF MONEY FIGHT...

My Homage : My College

In the hills of Tuensang;
It lodge my wistful Sao Chang College.
Like a birds twitter in the morning,
You await for our coming.

The first day I met you,
It was my treasured virtue.
I step in with nervous smile,
To walk with you a thousand mile.

It is written in the history;
You inbred from a man of bravery.
Encircle with prolific nature,

HER

Her! A ballad of beauty
Whose thine's art she sails fully
With her carries a solace.
Among smiteful tongues go grace
Sithe far, yet never darkened
Among folks, a fair garland
A sombre may aim, but say,
"not will my heart lure away
For with Lord above I race
Fully I am cloaked in Grace".

Hardship

In the realm of college, where challenges loom
Where students navigate through a tumultuous gloom,
Life's hardship is felt, with each passing day,
Yet they preserve in their own resilient way.

From the moment this step into campus ground,
They're trust into a world where trials abound,
With deadline looming and scheduled night.
They wrestle with street, from morning till night.

Financial burdens weight heavy on their minds,
As Tuition fees leave wallets far behind,
They work off jobs to make ends meet,
Balancing studies with tasks, both big and petite.

Running late with hurried steps and frantic pace,
They race against time, in this relentless chase,
Books and papers clutches to chest,
Each heartbeat a reminder of the test.

And thought the road is Rocky, and the journey long,
They cling to hope, like a comforting song,
For in the trials of college, they find their strength,
And emerge resilient, at any length.

Passing Age

And all of a sudden you are no more a child,
You carried books, now you carry burdens,
You had dreams, now you have plans that never happen...
You were once happy, now you just try to be happy...
And all of a sudden you've become a new person,
The laughter of your joy has become your tears in silence,
The confidence you had is now the insecurity you drag towards,
New friends are made, and old once forgotten...
The word "happiness" that's seldom used...
And all of a sudden you learn this,
That life's not going the way you want it to be...

In a place wild and absurd
surrounded by Woods,
At all glance I aspire to capture green.
Where the clouds would float the sky;

Lavender Flower

One bright day in the middle of the night
Under a moonbean soft glowing light
Her exotic fragrance woke me up with delight
My heart planted the ocean of lavender
Where she danced among purple field
A love so deep, it made my soul surrender

As I walk through this lavender realm
I could her presence, soothing balm melting my heart
An enchanting embrace that makes my soul sway
Carrying away my worries to a distant place

Each day with her in a dream
Her fragrance hovers over my soul
With her I've found a love that's rare
A love that live like a lavender

The half path of my life

Walking around wondering to the star,
The night comes yet, unpleasant sleep:
Wakes after the sun, arouse the wars,
Morning wasn't beautiful for my heart holds black sheep in me.

Looking around in me I found out no story,
Complex plurality on my way;
My heart makes me feel to be sorry,
Recreates my mind but I go astray.

Bloom beautiful flowers with sweet fragrance,
Accompanied with them by means;
Thereby surrounds me with sweet friends,
Indeed, never had I dreamt such dreams.

Walk down the street encountered a man of Christ,
Filled me with courage to follow the only Christ with heartedly
With repentance from the blacksheep I filled my thirst,
Yet, for the Lord is great. Today feels me perfect in imperfect.

My Sonnet- 1

Dreaming all days from near too far and old
Though old be gone and I am lately born
Histories in all lives still be known and told
But a new morns be thrown like badly worn
And merely shall it be dwell upon me
That conceit of all arts and of poet hood
With Shakepeare or Keats or Milton it be
Livable still as bewitched from childhood
When life be hapless and desolated
Could I had the beauteous never devoid
In haste I better be isolated
Than bad reputation a never avoid
And upon mayst it not just tell in bare
But ere long it be doth while still in rare.

Oh, My College

In the halls of college, where dreams intertwine, found a friend, a gem so divine.

Through laughter and tears, we stood side by side, Nurturing a bond that would never subside

Together with traversed the academic maze, Chasing knowledge, with passion ablaze

With every challenge, our spirits would rise, Making bright futures our ultimate price.

In the lecture halls and crowded café, we shared our secrets, our hopes, our dismay though late-night study sessions and heartfelt talks, We encourage each other, breaking down any blocks.

My love of learning, ignite by you, pushing boundaries, embracing what's new.

Your presence, like a guiding light, Guiding me towards path that shine so bright.

Oh, my college, a place of growth and change through friendships formed, life rearranged.

With my friend by my side and love in my heart, We'll conquer the world, creating own art.

In this journey of knowledge, we'll forever strive, Continuing to learn and help others' thrive

My college, my friends, my love so true, together, We'll make dreams come alive anew.

I Matter

I matter because I don't

I don't play any sports. I don't play any instrument. I don't like moving around. I don't win first in the class for any year. I don't write well I don't do anything worthwhile. I don't know what I want to do with my life.

You see me and forget because I look and act like all the other girls of the same race.

Enchanted Encounter

In a fleeting moment, a glance did spark.

A gentleman serene, in the evening dark, calm, handsome, intelligent, he stood, like a painting in the woods, so good.

In his eyes, a depth, a mystery untold with every step, grace did he sway. In that moment, my heart did betray.

With a flicker of hope, a spark ignited your presence, so rare left me excited.

But alas, fleeting was our encounter sweet, like a melody fading incomplete.

As Taylor Swift sings

" I remember it all to well "

Every detail of that moment, I endlessly dwell. Hoping our paths will cross once more,

To relive that enchanting allure.

In dreams, I see your face appear,

Wishing for reality to draw you near. A gentleman of mystery, captured my heart, yearning for the chance, for a brand new start.

So, I'll wait with patience in anticipation keen. For destiny's band to intervene.

And maybe, just maybe, our story will resume, in the dance of fate, under the same moon.
