REPORT

One-day webinar on Indian Knowledge Systems (IKS)

A one-day webinar was organized by the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) in collaboration with the department of English, Sao Chang College, Tuensang, on 30th May 2024. The resource person of the seminar was Dr. Kamdev Jha, former Principal, D.A.V. (P.G) college, Pehowa (Kurukshtra), Haryana. Dwelling on the topic, resource person of the webinar elucidated on how the Indian Knowledge Systems comprise of Jnan, Vignan, and Jeevan Darshan that have evolved out of experience, observation, experimentation, and rigorous analysis. Emphasising and reviving IKS in academia and higher education can instill a sense of cultural identity and self-respect among students and scholars. It helps reconnect with India's historical roots and ancient scientific developments, fostering a deeper appreciation for indigenous knowledge and its contribution to global thought. Highlighting on the relevance of IKS, speaker of the webinar reminded that the NEP 2020 recognizes this rich heritage of ancient and eternal Indian knowledge and thought, which would be a guiding principle in disseminating the rich legacy of timeless Indian knowledge and philosophy.

The webinar was chaired by Mr. Takunpuba Lomou, Assistant professor, Department of English, Sao Chang College. Vote of thanks was proposed by Mr. Lemkhaba Sangtam, Assistant Prof (Education) & member, IQAC, Sao Chang College.
